

INVITATION TO THE ASTRID & DONALD MONSON
COMMUNITY ACTION AWARD EVENT
FROM
HONOLULU LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Aloha Everyone,

The Fourth Astrid & Donald Monson Community Action Award Event will be held at the Hale Koa Hotel located at 2055 Kalia Road, on February 12, 2012, starting at 10:30am (for registration), followed by a champagne buffet brunch, award ceremony beginning at noon, talk by special guest and ending about 1:30pm.

This year, the Honolulu League of Women Voters Education Fund Board has chosen Henry Curtis.

Henry has been Executive Director of Life of the Land since 1995. He has a B.A. in Economics from Queens College, City University of New York. He is a community organizer, videographer, director, producer, peer reviewer, moot court judge, community facilitator, and expert witness on ocean power, biofuels, energy and externalities at the Public Utilities Commission where he has represented Life of the Land in 25 regulatory proceedings. He is committed to Hawai'i's energy self-reliance and well being and is motivated by the values of aloha`aina, malama`aina and his love for Hawai'i nei.

Our special guest speaker will be Randall Roth, Professor of Law at the University of Hawaii William S. Richardson School of Law here in Honolulu. He is one of the authors of "Broken Trust" and "Price of Paradise".

We look forward to seeing you on February 12. Please save this date. You may call your reservation to LWV at 531-7448 or mail your check for $35 for each buffet to Honolulu League of Women Voters, 49 South Hotel Street, Room 314, Honolulu, HI 96813. Please have your reservations in by COB Wednesday, February 8.

Mahalo,

Joy Marshall
President
